Several locations in and around Algonquin Park offer a wide range of services, including equipment rental, complete outfitting packages, guided and self-guided day trips, custom guided overnight trips and water taxi service. Algonquin Park Day Trips

If your time in Algonquin Park is limited, we offer a variety of day trips, starting at either our Oxtongue Lake or Opeongo Lake bases. Day trips offer an opportunity for exploring Algonquin Park while staying at a campground, cottage or resort, making a stop on a driving tour or just to take a short break from city life.

Overnight Canoe Trips

The best way to "get to the heart of Algonquin" is on a multi-day canoe trip. With almost 8000 square kilometres of wilderness, Algonquin Park can't possibly be fully experienced in just one day. Let our expert staff help plan your personal Algonquin Park adventure.

Custom Guided Canoe Trips

Algonquin Outfitters offers two options for guided day trips, and for those seeking an overnight canoe-camping experience, our exclusive Custom Guided Trip or "Guide for a Day" program.

OPEONGO WATER TAXI SERVICE

Opeongo Lake is the largest in Algonquin Park and the only access point is at the south end. The first portages leading to popular canoe routes are located in the North and East Arms, at least a 16-km (10-mile) paddle away. The average paddler could spend a day traveling this distance. A water taxi takes only 15 minutes, transporting you and your companions swiftly and safely to the other end of the lake, or to your favorite campsite.
